ORDER APPROVING WAIVER OF PRELIMINARY EXAMINATION

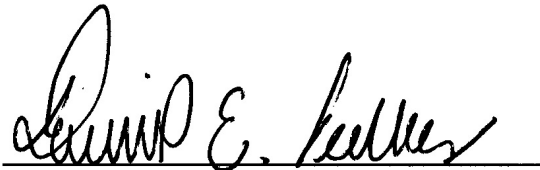

Defendant has been charged by a criminal complaint with conspiracy to distribute and possess with intent to distribute in excess of 500 grams of powder cocaine and in excess of 50 grams of cocaine base ("crack"), in violation of 21 U.S.C. § 846. At his initial appearance on October 29, 2008, the government moved for his detention pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f) and a detention hearing was thereafter scheduled for November 3, 2008.

During this detention hearing, the defendant, through his counsel, waived his right to a preliminary examination. In announcing that waiver, defendant's counsel advised that he had explained the nature of the preliminary examination to the defendant, including the consequences of any waiver of the right to such a preliminary examination, and that the defendant was knowingly and voluntarily waiving his right to a preliminary examination with full knowledge of the consequences thereof.

Based upon the foregoing, including defendant's voluntary representations, it is hereby ORDERED, that defendant's waiver of his right to a preliminary examination, which I find to have been knowing, intelligent and voluntary, is accepted.
